Nu Skool is a well-balanced IPA that came to life after years of R&D batches at Southern Tier's Lakewood brewing facility. It pours a copper color in a medium-bodied frame. Strong notes of tropical fruit waft from its soft white head thanks to the hefty use of Mosaic hops and the flavor serves up balanced malty sweetness accompanied by fruity, piney, citrusy, resinous characteristics. 3.5 lbs. of "new school" hops per barrel applied throughout the brewing process makes Nu Skool a homage to the evolution of hops in American brewing.
